In
The Beginning . . .

There was quiet. Through the stillness of the night, sound is born, and life begins another day. The alarm awakens Westminster to another school day. The clothes are routinely thrown on while 96 Rock blares the favorite songs. Breakfast is quickly shoved down in order to avoid the 7:45 traffic jam. The policemen lead the long, streaming lines of cars to their prospective destinations. Cars swerve to miss the unlucky Juniors who are assigned to the tennis courts. Girls and boys scurry to their homeroom to avoid detention. The next fifteen minutes are the highlight of the secretary's day. She bombards indifferent students with announcement upon announcement. Finally, the 8:15 bell rings. The school day begins!

Even though the average Westminster student has many study halls and extra-curricular activities, the "action" of the school lies in the classrooms. Teachers and students gather at least four times a week to "share knowledge" and grow intellectually. As Priscilla Adams says, "Students come to class expecting to get something out of what the teacher says and does. I like that!"

In almost every class, notes are frantically being taken, stimulating conversation is taking place, or the students are encountering a "learning experience." Everyone who comes to class is bound to gain knowledge before he or she leaves.

Where The Action Is

The mad scramble to collect books, the daily race down halls and stairways — books, coats, sneakers crammed in cubby holes — growing lines as students, faculty wait to get food — “What’s in the hot line today?”; “Hand me a fork”; “Two rolls, please”; through the line to the salad bar; the search for an empty place. Wendie Westminsterite and John Q. Student finally resort to eating on the benches outside the cafeteria — finish their meal, go back through the exit line for another doughnut, dump their tray on the conveyor belt, apologize for drenching the person behind them as they drop their forks into the watery bin of silverware, stop to talk to friends at a crowded table on their way out: lunch is over — the Westminster student is ready to face the rest of a day.

Feast Or Famine?

"The Dean of Students reserves the right to enforce disciplinary procedures when, in his judgment, the health and welfare of an individual student or the community is best served. Appeals of any action resulting from this clause may be entered with the Disciplinary Committee or the Principal." (Westminster Boys' School Student Handbook)

"We believe that good discipline is a necessary part of a student's development." (Westminster Girls' School Student Handbook)

At times, many of the disciplinary policies at Westminster seem almost oppressive. Backed up by the so-called "elastic clause" as well as the school's basic philosophy, several faculty members seem to delight in meting out scoldings and detentions to students for contravening the school's image by sleeping on the couches or sitting on vases and heaters in Pressley Hall as well as for sneaking into the auditorium, walking in the woods, or even chewing bubble gum.

When We're
Good, We're Great, But . . .

Hangouts, Haunts, And Habitats

Although nature and the architects of Westminster designed the campus to be pleasing to the eye and good for the mind, there are places on the grounds that serve (strictly by chance) to soothe the aching back and abused head. The most popular of these hide-outs include: the stairwells, the jungle gym and slide, the foyer, "back-stage" in the auditorium, amongst the lockers in the Junior High, and many other places better left unpublicized. Future generations of Westminster students, however, may be confined to the safety of their respective lockers as the current space shortage will extend classrooms beyond their present limits and perhaps even into the nooks and crannies we now call our own.

As the minute hand starts its endless descent, both students and teachers lose sight of the subject at hand; daydreams and digressions replace determinants and lectures until the secretary's voice over the intercom heralds the coming freedom. The din grows as the teacher struggles to communicate the next assignment; with the bell, mobs are released only to fly home to catch the last few minutes of "Leave it to Beaver." Curlers are plugged in and allowances are requested in anticipation of a night of "adventure." Dates, parties, and campouts all help to restore the student's faith in humanity. Weekends — a vital part of the school's curriculum.

"When You're Smiling . . ."

smile (smil), smiled, smiling — to assume a facial expression indicating usually pleasure, favor or amusement, but sometimes characterized by an upturning of the corners of the mouth and usually accompanied, especially in indicating pleasure, by a brightening of the face and eyes.

Nothing keeps the Westminster student down for long; smiling faces can be seen all over the campus at all times of the year (and especially when a camera is around), even in the face of unkind weather, overloaded schedules, insurmountable conflicts and the like. In class, during activities, at lunch, good spirits somehow prevail, and sunny smiles make the atmosphere warm, friendly, and even inviting. A good sense of humor is a definite asset — it's the comic spirit that keeps us going!

Have you ever had one of those (inane, prosaic, listless, effusive, phlegmatic, torpid, somber, uninspired, farcical, hebetic, distensive, dreary, expansive, garrulous, hilarious, merry, querulous, fretful, obsessive, possessive, eccentric, insipid, absurd, egregious, outrageous, loquacious, bizarre, convivial, jejune, humdrum, elephantine, monotonous, lentitudinous, voluble, sluggish, ridiculous, whimsical, ludicrous, lethargic, staid, languid, elegiac, tedious, vapid, mirthful, idiosyncratic) days??

The Ridiculous And The Sublime

Different Strokes For Different Folks

Life at Westminster could hardly be characterized as boring; the student body here will try most anything once. Impersonating Santa's reindeer, critiquing past issues of the award winning Bi Line, participating in omni-partisan politics, showing off new additions to the harem, or perhaps just watching a football game are all a part of the school's extra-curricular activities. For those with the inclination (and the courage), the Westminster Road Racing Classic is open to all students, regardless of age, sex, or driving ability, from about 7:40 until 8:00 each morning. The only requirement of participants is that they purchase a minimum of $25,000 worth of collision insurance for their "wheels."

For this year's Mardi Gras, the Seniors selected a theme that could be variously interpreted and imaginatively expressed — Baskin Robbins Thirty-One Flavors. Cha Cha Cha, the Seniors' flavor was outstandingly represented in their winning float "The Playful Donkey," ridden by Cary Tregallas. But no class surpassed the Juniors' bubble dance in their skit "We Heard It Through the Grapevine." Much hard work and creativity was seen in the Sophomores' "Chilled Fruit Tree." Ice and cream met among dancing ladies in the Freshmen's winning skit "Oliver?" Perhaps the most spectacular entertainment of the evening was the intermission gymnastics provided by the Junior High Gymnastics Team.

Student Leadership 1976-77

Throughout the year, the relaxed, yet concerned atmosphere among the students was the most evident indication of successful leadership: Jimmy and Len were both able to respond to the interests of the students and establish respect among the faculty to create a positive and productive community.

The Bi-Line Staff

A Self-Portrait

Anyone who has been up to the senior high study center this year has probably noticed the Bi-Line room, a little cubicle shrouded in mystery from which emerges the sounds of many screaming voices and monthly, a masterpiece of literature and design.

Although few students have managed to get a glimpse of the odd activities which prevail behind the oft-closed door(s) of the Bi-Line's main office, things do happen in there: fun-loving editors stuff confettied back issues down each other's shirts, confounded editors "quietly discuss" the issues of the day, trying (unsuccessfully for the most part) to suppress the oaths that are crouched on the tips of their tongues, and occasionally some overly industrious person types an article or proofreads an editorial.

On Musicals

The production of the annual musical has not been approved and there is a good chance it will not be. The reasons for this seem to be the lack of funds and complaints about the amount of time the musical would take away from scholastic work.

It appears that some people have complained that the musical interrupts our studies, therefore it should be cancelled. If we were to follow this kind of logic, we should also cancel every varsity sport, for there is more time spent in practice for a sport than is spent in rehearsals for a musical. In addition each sport lasts about three months, the musical one. Further, there are some students who are in more than one sport and thus their studies are interrupted from six to eight months. Yet the musical must be cancelled.

Traditionally, each show takes about one month to prepare, with most rehearsal time being spent during the scheduled chorale periods. Only the last two weeks involve after school and weekend time. Teachers at Westminster are not famous for their strictness to football players or other athletes when they have a test or assignment due around a big game. Is the same thing true for the dress rehearsal of a musical?

The musical is one thing we surely can afford; it is the best method of public relations we have. The music and drama departments expose more people to Westminster than any other departments. Last year Oklahoma drew more people from outside the Westminster community than any other event on campus. The reputation of our fine arts department has grown because of the musical, and thus the reputation of our school has grown.

As a college preparatory school Westminster's job is to turn out the renowned "well rounded student" (colleges love'm); and the annual musical is an integral part of this well roundedness.

WESTMINSTER BI-LINE

He scrambles through the front door of the Boy's School with the sound of the bell ringing in his ears. With a sinking feeling in the pit of his stomach, he hears: "Freeman," "here;" "Galloway," "here;" from another room: "Parker," ... "Here! Here! Hyo!" Realizing that he is Richard Parker, he once again screams madly, "Here, Sir, here!"

But it is too late. "Congratulations, Richard, You've just made the team."

"But sir, I was in the doorway."

"The rules are the rules."

He sits down, shaking the sleep out of his eyes, trying to grasp the fact that he has just had two hours of his precious Saturday morning sleep rudely snatched from him. He wonders what it was he missed and whom he hurt in those ten seconds of tardiness.

Lunch period arrives, and he finds himself free. He looks over Mr. Patton's shoulder and faces the same pressed ham and potato chips that he has faced every Tuesday for the last four years of his life. He finally cracks; he just can't cope. Screaming "Ah yes, tis a fair thought," he dashes down to his car and off to Leda's for a Swan-burger. An hour later, as he gets out of his car behind the gym, Mr. Patton approaches him and asks, "Have a nice lunch, Richard?" Richard mumbles something to the effect of "food of the gods." At this point Richard realizes that he has been demoted to the second team. A sense of indignation grows.

He retreats to the steps of the Administration Building, seeking sympathy and protection amongst his friends. He is abruptly shocked out of his lethargy by a harsh cry, "Where are your socks, Richard?"

Richard sits dumbfounded. "This can't be happening. What is this, some kind of a sick joke? What have I done? I haven't hurt anyone!"

His back against the column with nowhere to turn, he realizes he has but one hope. He rushes to the Student Council meeting, throws himself at Bentley's feet and collapses. "What is this wretch?" Bentley demands. Parker babbles, "They're mad; they're all mad! What are you going to do about it? I AM INNOCENT! I've done nothing."

"We're way ahead of you, Pork," Bentley says. "We've had had our eye on you and have drawn up some proposals that ought to help you out a little. You may have already of our proposal that would allow seniors to go off campus for lunch in return for their services in the lunch room. We are also considering a revamping of the homeroom system, possibly heading towards student-run homerooms. Moreover, we can find no reason why anyone should be offended by your bare ankles."

"Bless you, boys, bless you."

FUNERAL

The people are packed in here. Look at dat. I'm playin' fo' a full house. Too bad I didn't bring 'em in here 'cause of my playin'. There's the ole president all decked out in clothes he never seen befo'. First time he ever drew an audience he wasn't goin' to speak to. You know, he almost looks alive, looks just like he's sleepin'.

I wonder why people like to see people like that, dead. Maybe it makes them feel good to see that they ain't in the same position. They all cry, too. Damned if I knows why. Most folks here are believers too; it's like they believe he goin' to hell an' not heaven, maybe dat's the reason they's all cryin' . . .

I'll just relax now. Don' gotta play for another few minutes. Just lean on the organ. Whoa! Slipped, man o'man I done it now! Disrupted the whole eulogy. Bet nobody can sing in that key! Man! Wish't I was in that box instead o' the president. Them people wasn't quite prepared for dat, me neither. I thinks I oughta' slip out rights about now. Slip out befo' it's time fo' the next music. They ain't ready fo' it now.

The language clubs add a cosmopolitan flavor to Westminster life. These clubs have become more popular than in past years as the enrollment and interest of members have increased. Events such as Christmas caroling, selling crepes, Inviting speakers, and going to Underground to eat are all examples of language club functions. The Experiment in International Living group also contributes to the exposure of Westminster students to a worldly atmosphere.

SPORTS

The Varsity Football Team of 1976 endured a season with many highlights and disappointments. After the loss of twenty seniors from last year's 7-3 team, this year's squad was composed of players with little prior Varsity experience. In the first three games against Northside, Lithia Springs, and Woodward, the Wildcats beat themselves; though the team was able to move the ball well, an exceptionally large number of turnovers resulted in an average score of less than seven points a game. However, against Berkmar, generally considered to be an excellent team, the Wildcats had only one turnover and easily won the game 28 to 3. Nick Manos rushed for 167 yards in the rout.

After the Berkmar victory, the Cats played Roswell, St. Pius, Riverwood, and the number one rated Marist War Eagles. Though they threatened to score in the last seconds of the Roswell game, some questionable clock operating gave Roswell a very close 17-14 victory. The following three weeks, the team was again plagued by turnovers, resulting in three more losses.

In the final two games of the season, the Cats seemed to have solved their earlier problems, defeating Ridgeview 43-14 and North Fulton 21-0. The offense led by sophomores Gordon Beckham and Cole Egan and senior halfback Nick Manos finally came alive. Manos gained over 300 yards in the final games, bringing his season total to over a thousand yards for the second straight year. The defense, headed by Ken Spradley and Charlie Brake Award Winner Bill Lippincott, combined with the offense to present a thoroughly enjoyable end to an otherwise lackluster season.

This year's ninth graders participated in both junior varsity and ninth grade contests. In J.V. competition the Wildcats tied Woodward 6-6 and lost to the Riverwood Raiders 12-20. Seven sophomores dropped down from the Varsity to play in these games. Against ninth grade teams the Cats compiled a 3-1 record with victories over Roswell, Marist, and St. Pius. Strengths were Jack Westbrook, leading rusher, quarterback Richard Lindeman, powerful Herman Russell, and the entire starting offensive and defensive lines.

Both Junior High football teams were very successful. The eighth graders were 7-0 going into the Metropolitan Football League championship game but were defeated in the bowl game by the Wheeler Wildcats who won 8-6, avenging a 16-12 loss earlier in the season. This was the first defeat these young athletes experienced in their Junior High football careers. Head Coach Billy Ray Schmidt attributed the team's accomplishment to superior linemen and an explosive offense led by Quillian Reeves and Hugh Gloster.

The seventh graders comprised the most awesome Westminster football team of the year. The Baby Wildcats were 6-0 during the regular season and then proceeded to win the Metro Football League championship by demolishing Wheeler 40-22. The closest game was against Marietta in which the seventh graders prevailed 16-8. Middle guard Chuck Breithaupt and Tom DiFiore, who had five interceptions, were defensive standouts, while runningback Harold Dawson and Chuck Easley led the offense. Easley, a 5 feet 11 inch, 176 pound halfback, raced for 22 touchdowns during the season.

Senior spikers Diane Pretz and Robin Jaquith and setter Eliza McGregor led the Varsity Volleyball team to their second undefeated season in three years. Other strong varsity leaders were Cathy MacFarlane, Cynthia Wilburn, Heather McKenzie and Jodi Parsons. During the pre-season, the strength of the setter position was questionable. However, Cathy MacFarlane, Most Improved, had an excellent season and took up the slack left by departing seniors.

Diana Pretz, Most Valuable Player, led the team in point scoring plays with a high of thirty-two spikes and an excellent power service game. Cynthia Wilburn, captain, provided consistency in all aspects of the game. The team did lose one game to a group of senior boys. Though the girls had more volleyball knowledge, the boys managed to defeat them by brute strength in a very close match.

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team had only one player with any prior experience. Nonetheless, they managed to win two games. Missy McGrew, Most Valuable Player and captain, and Lynn Myrick, Most Improved, were the team leaders. Andrea Cohen, Elizabeth Rodrigues, and Pat Boomershine added support through good hustle. These girls will help continue the winning tradition of Westminster Volleyball.

With only two returning lettermen, the 1976 Cross Country Team was expected to have a rebuilding year, which it did to a certain extent. The runners, however, steadily improved and the team took third place in this year's close region 4-AA meet by a mere two points. This year's runners were seniors: Tom Taylor, Doug Taylor, Frampton Simmons, Alan White; juniors: Clay Bordley, John Ward, Tim Fitzpatrick, Sandy Zussmann, Bill Oglesby; sophomores: John Shoffner, Tom Hicks, and surprise freshman Joel Deitch.

The team took part in four large meets: The Berry and Bradshaw Invitationals, The Headland Road Race, and the Westminster-Pace Invitational. In dual and tri meets, Westminster runners performed strongly against such perennial powers as Ridgeview, Headland, and Calhoun. In a sport that focuses primarily on individual talents and effort, it was surprising that a strong sense of team unity developed as the season went on. Long practices, guided by Head Coach Paul Koshewa and Coach Berkley Latimer, hard work, and a total team effort, were the key to a final showing of third in the region.

The annual team awards presented at the Sports Banquet went to: John Shoffner, Best First Year Man; John Ward, Best Effort; Clay Bordley, Most Improved; and Tom Taylor, Most Valuable.

Soccer Team Undefeated In Regular Season

They had just knocked off Woodward 2-1 for the region championship in front of the largest Westminster soccer crowd ever and had proceeded to bury archival Lovett 6-1 the following week. The momentum of the season had climaxed right up to the first round game against Forrest Park, where the team was shocked in a 2-0 defeat. Coach Sims stated afterwards, "To take it all, you've got to be good, and you have to be lucky. We were good, but luck was simply not in the cards. We could not buy a goal." Post season awards went to Griff Sims, most valuable offense, Julian LeCraw, most valuable defense, and the Coach's Award went to Nick Manos.

Special recognition should be given to Senior Tommy Thatcher who completed his fifth year as manager of the varsity team. Tom was responsible for distributing uniforms, marking the fields, and even hauling a heater to warm frozen feet during the winter season.

Coming into the 1977 season as the defending State Champions, the Varsity Soccer team maintained their top ranking by posting a perfect regular season record of 10-0-0. This was only the second team in Westminster history to go undefeated and untied during the regular season. The nineteenth edition of Bob Sims' Boosters prided themselves on tradition and experience which seemed to be the catalyst for victory throughout the year.

The offense exemplified experience as the line of Chris LeCraw, Doug Leviton, Jamie Shuford, and Griff Sims was first formed in 1972. Co-captain and All-State performer Griff Sims led all scorers with fourteen goals. Leviton, LeCraw, Simons, and Anthony Pulgram combined for twenty-one goals during the season. Fine mid-field play was provided by Pulgram, Craig Pendergrast, and Clay Bordley (who was elected captain for the 1978 squad).

The defense matched the tenacity of last year's team by yielding a mere four goals in ten games. The unceasingly aggressive defense was led by Captain Julian LeCraw. His cohorts Mark McClellan, Mike Tippet, and Mac Durrett played admirably in support of goalies Nick Manos and George Baird. Manos was stingy in goal all year long and turned away the highest percentage of shots (96%) in the State.

The J.V. Soccer Team enjoyed three decisive victories over Marietta, Marist and Riverwood. Two very close contests were lost to Lovette and St. Pius. The leading scorer for the season was forward Jim Elder who scored three times in the final game against Riverwood. Jimmy Hull, Marshall Wellborn, and Stephen Alperin formed the heart of a tenacious defense that yielded only two goals in the last four games.

Despite getting off to a slow start, the ninth grade soccer team posted a 2-2-1 record for the year. The team has solid wins over Woodward and Marist as well as a heartbreaking tie in the opening game, losing a victory with two seconds remaining. Standout performers were Grady, McLain, O'Brian, Harrison and Egan; the defense was led by Fishburne and Westbrook with Riddle in the goal. Coaches Whitlatch and Taylor felt that despite the youth of these performers, they will have a significant impact on the varsity club next season.

Both Junior High Soccer Teams Gain Invaluable Experience

Junior High Soccer was divided into two teams this year, the green and the white. The green team went 2-2 and the white team posted a 1-4 record. Coached by Sandy Gardner, the white team saw strong efforts turned by David Stunda, Dan Brown, and Ivan Allen. The green team, coached by John McIlvaine was led offensively by David McClellan and Chris Pulgram. The defense was headed by Sam Bentley, Wes Taber, and Goalie Billy Huger. With experience gained this year, both teams will undoubtedly combine to form a strong ninth grade next year.

Youth Holds Promise For Basketball Future

This year's Varsity Boys' Basketball Team struggled to a 10-11 season. Though eight players, including all five starters, graduated from last year's 27-2 team, much was expected by Westminster loyalists. The inexperienced cagers lived up to all pre-season predictions by winning their first four games of the season. Starters during the first half of the year were Teddy Benson, Bob Killorin, Kris Smith, and the flashy backcourt duo of Jeff Singer and Keith Lindsay. This line up's big men outscored and rebounded opponents' shots by a decisive margin. Killorin and Smith, both six feet five forwards, and Teddy Benson, six foot nine center, towered over their foes. Unfortunately, after wins over relatively short teams, the Wildcats faced teams such as Woodward, St. Pius, Lakeshore, and Class B State Champion GAC that also had tall teams. All four of these teams ranked in the top ten of their respective classes for most of the year. The Cats played well against these teams, but nevertheless failed to win.

During the second half of the season, Coach Van Leer juggled the starting line up in hopes of developing a better "team effort." Kyle Jenks, Cole Egan, and Bill Floyd gradually worked themselves up to starting positions, replacing seniors Singer, Lindsey, and Killorin. With this new line up and even new double knit uniforms, the B-ballers only managed to play .500 basketball.

The most impressive victories were against AA power Roswell. The Cats beat Roswell twice by one point at home and by seventeen at Roswell. During the away game, the "crunch bunch" tried out new defense, setting up on the wrong end of the court, so that Roswell threw in the ball and scored an uncontested lay-up. Offensive leaders for the season were Teddy Benson and Kris Smith, who averaged seventeen and sixteen points per game respectively. During the second portion of the season, sophomore Cole Egan found his shooting touch and scored consistently in double figures. Defensive stalwarts were Jeff Singer, Bill Floyd, and Keith Lindsay, who led the team in steals.

The future for Boys' Basketball is promising. All five starters will return along with guards Dan Drais and Scott Kenney and forwards Thomas Bates and Bill Lippincott. Additional help can be expected from some of the J.V. players plus individuals from the championship Junior High Teams.

Girls Varsity Shows Improving Form

M.V.P. Diana Pretz.

The 76-77 Varsity Basketball team enjoyed the finest season the girls' team has had in the past nine years. They finished the season with an impressive 18-5 over all record and winning the 4-AA North Championship. The team was second in the Greater Atlanta Prep Classic, but was knocked out of the region tournament by a strong Woodward team.

With four experienced starters returning the team looked forward to the regular season with eagerness. The returning starters were Capt. Diana Pretz, Cynthia Wilburn, Donna Johnson, and Libby Heberton. A mild setback occurred when Heberton was lost for the first half of the season because of a bout with mono and expected starter Jodi Parsons was lost for the year due to knee surgery. Picking up the slack and doing an outstanding job filling were juniors Missy McGrew, Lynn Myrick, Cathy MacFarlane, Lori Gow along with two pleasant surprise sophomores Mike Frankhouser and Rebecca Johnson.

Diana Pretz paced the squad with a fifteen point scoring average, while dominating the backboards with ten rebounds per game. Backing up Pretz was speedy floor general Donna Johnson with ten points and five rebounds a game. Steady Cynthia Wilburn was as effective rebounder and after a slow start was a major factor in the eleven game win streak at the end of the year. Sophomore Rebecca Johnson, although inconsistent due to lack of experience, showed flashes of greatness. Three year starter Heberton joined the team after Christmas and after drew the toughest defensive assignment.

Although losing a very strong starter in Capt. Diana Pretz. The outlook for next year seems very bright with three veteran starters returning, an experienced bench, and a sound Parsons to challenge Frankhouser and Johnson for the center positions.

Post season awards were presented to Diana Pretz, MVP; Cathy MacFarlane, Hustle; and Mike Frankhouser, Most Improved.

Inconsistency Marks J.V. Season

The J.V. Basketball team showed off their talent sporadically this season. Despite a disappointing start, the team played its best basketball of the season during the Greater Atlanta Prep Classic, placing second in the prestigious tournament. After beating Woodward and Lovett to gain a berth in the final against G.A.C., the Wildcats played, in the words of Coach Ward, "the best J.V. basketball that I have ever coached." Unfortunately, G.A.C. was every bit as good as Westminster and managed to win the championship game, 86-83. Herman Russell and Kevin Spurgeon each averaged over twenty points a game during the Prep Classic.

Unfortunately, the Cats could not match their performance before Christmas. They managed only one more victory, defeating Ridgeview 55-49. Offensive leaders were Kevin Spurgeon, Richard Lindeman, and Herman Russell, who each had numerous games in which they scored over fourteen points. Defensive standouts were sophomores Tom Eaton, John Wallace, and Ponder Harrison.

The eighth grade team completed a highly successful season by winning their Prep League Championship. The team was led by Scott Shackelford, Most Valuable Player, Jimmy Irvin and Quillian Reeves on the boards, David Butler, Most Improved, and John Parsens, Russell Gray, and Hugh Gloster, who dominated defensive play. Coach DePriest considered this team one of the finest he has worked with at Westminster.

The J.V. Girls' Basketball team had a learning year. While winning only one game and losing four, the team worked hard, showed good team effort and developed their individual skills. Caroline Tift, Consie Paris, and Pat Boomershine all showed promise for future success in basketball.

Ninth Grade Boys: Mixed Success Junior High Girls Gain Needed Experience

Led by Steven and Tad Davis the Ninth Grade Basketball Team managed a .500 season. Despite a constant height disadvantage, the team never lacked the hustle and enthusiasm that leads to good team play. Many team members have a good chance for fine basketball careers at Westminster.

The Junior High Girl's Basketball Team had a two and five season. Team captains, Claire Dorris and Leila Taratus, were the high scorers; Carolyn Griffin, Donna Izlar, and Patty Jervey provided defensive strength while Cindy Hutchings, Marion Klotz, and Rebecca Marshall gave the team added depth.

The seventh graders comprised two basketball teams, A and B. The B team posted a 5-2 record in Rotary League competition, but the A team led by ALL-STAR selections Chuck Easley, Harold Dawson, Tom Difiore and Russell Lloyd, stormed to a perfect 9-0 season. Winning both the regular season and tournament trophies. This year's team produced many awesome moments of complete domination. Their harassing and intimidating defense was surpassed only by their fastbreaking style of scoring and pounding the boards. The basketball program of the future is indeed in good hands.

Young Swimming Team Improves During Season

Compassionate Coach, Mr. Higgins

Led by Jeff Schermerhorn and Debbie Torras, the swim teams compiled good records. Both teams were third in the Metro Atlanta Championships, with Timmy Perrin, Debbie Jones, Debbie Torras, Alan Joel, Todd Cooper, Brooks Whitney and Bill Rogers scoring points. After Swimming through exams and spring vacation, the teams went to Athens on March 11 for the State Meet. Here the boys had 16 entered; The girls had 9. Cooper, Joel, Schermerhorn, Rogers and Browne brought the boys to a fifth place finish. Perrin and Torras, along with Maria DiLiberti and Barbara Calk took the girl's to third place. Many points were scored by the divers in both the Metro and State meets. Doug Murdock, Alan Aycok, and John Logan were eight, ninth and tenth, respectively. Allison Reid was the State champion, while Karen Gorham was second and Peggy Turner was a surprise ninth. This is a young team, with only five seniors, and much is to be expected of them in the future. Next year's hopefuls include Sara Calk, Caroline Lide, Rachel McConnell, Jane Roper, Alan Bomar, Tom Welch, Mal Proudfoot and Richard Guder.

Wrestlers Continue Winning Ways

Westminster's wrestling team completed its most successful season in recent years by capturing the Area III Championship and placing fourth in both state AA and N. Metro Open Class Tournaments. In dual meets the team rolled to a 9-2 record, paced by strong senior leadership in seven of the fourteen weight divisions. The two biggest matches each year are with arch-rivals Marist and Woodward, the teams that have dominated AA competition for the past decade, and this year the Cats pulled the tail-feathers on both "War Eagle" teams much to the satisfaction of our coaches and wrestlers alike.

The big news in tourney competition was Westminster's first Area championship (two regions combined), coming as the result of an outstanding team effort that saw the Wildcats place ten wrestlers in the semi-finals and emerge with five Area Champs, three runners-up, and a third place, putting down a strong threat by former AAA power Avondale. The Cats set a school scoring record by gathering 185 points in the meet.

Bradley Block, John Clay, Pearson Eastham, Clint Hutchison, and Frank Shackelford were honored by the Takedown Club as "Wrestler of the Week" for specific accomplishments during the season, and the Wildcats were "Team of the Week" for winning Area III.

Although the loss of our seniors will be felt keenly, next year's team should again be a force to be reckoned with, as a strong second team moves into varsity jobs along with returnees Brad Block, Stephen Eastham, Legun, Hamilton, Stegall, Felton, Clay, and Christian. Expected to do especially well next year are Boyer, Haverty, Franch, Rolander, and Shreve, who should most into the Varsity line up on a regular basis.

Rifle Team Has Near Perfect Record

Seniors: Farmer, Wilson, Spradley, and Berggren.

The Westminster riflery team, known around campus as the "Westminster Bullshooters", had a terrific season with one loss to arch-rival Campbell of Smyrna. With a strong first string of Missy Spradley Bruce Berggren, Stuart Jones, Hayes Wilson, and Sandy Farmer. The "Bullshooters" have manager to pull themselves through any opposition whether another team or Mother Nature. Although, the team will be losing their first string, due to graduation, the second string has shown itself proud. At the recent National Sectional competition the Bullshooters brought home a first and second place. As Lynx goes to press the team is preparing themselves for the state competition later this year.

Seniors Lead Golf Team

The 1977 Golf Team should score well this spring. With three returning letterman, Junior Mario Rappaccioli, and Seniors Chip Smith and Blanton Winship, the Most Valuable Player from last year's team, the golfers have the experience to go all the way. Sophomores Bill Sturkie and Andrew Taylor, Junior Matt Hawkins, and Senior Glenn Warren and Scott Campbell should help with low scores during the season. As always, the fearless mentor of the duffers, J.G. Patton will lead his men in their search for balls, birdies, and victories.

Baseball Expects Another Good Season

Returning Lettermen: Tift, Sims, Beckham, Eaton, Jones, Smith, Lloyd, Adams, Lacefield, Williams.

The Baseball Teams under coaches Harry Lloyd and Dave Drake have developed a winning tradition over the years. In 1975 the team won the state title and the 1977 team has the talent to regain the championship lost last year. During the Spring Vacation the team traveled to Florida to play four preseason games and tan their bodies. The results of the trip were quite visible when they returned to Westminster. After winning three out of four games in Florida, the team trounced Northside back at home 11-3.

The starters during the first five games were infielders Scott Lacefield, Stuart Williams, Chuck Adams, and Mark Jones. The outfield was comprised of Gordon Beckham, Bill McGinnis, and Greg Georgas. Catching was last year's MVP and leading hitter Pat Lloyd. Pitching and first base duties were handled by Mark Jones and the best pitcher from last year, Kris Smith. With this strong nucleus of players and a strong bench support led by Richard Tift, Griff Sims, and Tom Eaton the 1977 Baseball team should have an outstanding season.

Track Faces Season With New Outlook

Superstar Carol Upshaw.

The Girl's Track Team this year is still in its early stages. The freshmen members of the team show strength in their numbers and their potential which will be beneficial for the team's future support. The nacent leadership of the sophomore and junior participants is following the traditions set by the returning seniors. Seniors Susan Manning, Robin Jaquith, Ellen Grider, and Joia Johnson return supplying the needed support in all the field events, hurdles, and both relay teams. With their new Coach, Mr. O'Dyer Spurgeon, the team is becoming stronger and more unified, and success is flourishing for the following years.

Track Team Strives For Region Championship

This year's Varsity Track team has a bright future ahead. With the realignment of the regions this past year, the Wildcats no longer have to contend with the perennial powerhouses Decatur and Gordon. However, with the shuffling of regions, 4AA has acquired Class A powerhouse Ridgeway. The nucleus of last year's fine team was lost to graduation but the Wildcats will still be as strong as ever in the field events. Returning lettermen are Tad McDonough, Jeff Singer, and Jim Bentley in the pole vault; George Baird in the long, triple, and high jumps; Bill Lippincott in the shot; and Nick Manos in the discus. Look for the team to be strong in multi-team competition but not as powerful in dual meets.

Gymnasts Exercise Unusual Talent

The 1976 Area Gymnastics Champions and State Runner-Ups are back strong and looking for another good season. Led by veterans Senior Cary Tregellas and Junior Diana Cates, the varsity and Junior Varsity appear to have a bright future with depth coming from an outstanding Junior High team. The strong Junior Varsity leaders are Clare McCamy, Laura Mason, and Jan Shoffner. Although the gymnastics season is not under way as Lynx goes to press, a lot will be expected from them because of last year's accomplishments of Varsity obtaining the 1976 Westminster Invitational Champions, for the fourth year in a row, and the Junior Varsity placed second in "B" team Invitational.

Tennis Team Unbeatable In Georgia

The 1977 Boys Varsity Tennis Team has not lost a match in Georgia in the past decade. Though Baylor and McCallie in Chattanooga have defeated the Wildcat Tennis Team, this year these two powerful tennis schools will have to play "out of their heads" to beat the Cats. Returning from last year's team are state singles champion Bud Cox, Sophomores Bill Anderson and Keith Love, ferocious Juniors Chris Richey and Howard Carson, and the vocal Senior pair of Jamir Shuford and Jimbo Izlar. In addition to these returning letterman, John Corse ranked second in the national 16 and unders, will take over the number one singles position. Because of a Georgia rule that stated players could not take private lessons during a competitive season, Corse decided to keep taking lessons privately and thus could not play for Westminster. This year the rule was waived which enabled Corse to play on the Varsity this year. With this addition and through the fine coaching of Wade Boggs the team should go undefeated in both Georgia and Tennessee.

Girls Tennis Continues Success

The Girl's Varsity Tennis Team has won countless region and state championships and the Rotary Tournament played in Chattanooga in the last several years. The 1977 version should again equal the accomplishments of the past teams. Returning players are two time state singles champion, Wendy White, state-ranked Sophomores Debbie Kalish and Sarah Ann LeCraw, Junior Heather McKenzie, and Senior Beth Shortridge.

Under the guidance of Judith Bush the girls should be ready for the numerous matches beginning in March. Some of the stronger teams on the schedule are Girls Preparatory School in Chattanooga, Lovette, and Savannah Country Day. But again, the girls should go undefeated and claim the state singles and doubles titles.

The Westminster Schools

Christian Preparatory Schools for Boys and Girls

Office of the President

Dear Seniors:

First, I want to thank you for so many courtesies extended to Mrs. Gaebelein and me in our first year back at Westminster. We are grateful for your consideration and friendship, very grateful.

So much has happened, so much changed in our country these last few years that more than ever America needs character leadership. Our nation must have quality men and women of ability, strength, and faith willing to take responsibility and give their lives in service. The Christian finds this calling an imperative, for those to whom much is given are expected to give much in return. In Matthew 25 Jesus spoke clearly about our obligation to use our talents, then explained where we are to use them. May these words guide your lives.

Your class has done much to enlarge Westminster. Thank you! We wish you every success and hope you will return to visit often.

Sincerely,

Donn M. Gaebelein

Mr. Donn M. Gaebelein Returns To Westminster

After thirteen years away from the school, Mr. Donn M. Gaebelein's return to Westminster as President has generally been favorably accepted by the entire school community. He has added another dimension to the religious aspects of the school, forming a new student faculty committee to coordinate religious assemblies and activities, and hosting the Monday night Bible Club at his home. He also regularly attends school functions and concerts to the delight of the students involved. Most of all, though, Mr. Gaebelein has brought a welcome air of informality to the President's office, regularly roaming the halls early in the morning, and making sure that he is accessible to all. Though several administrative actions have come under fire from students, faculty, and parents (most notable the decision to close the dormitories and the policy of "trade-off" negotiations with student representatives), this year of transition has been remarkably smooth.

JOE ACKER
"Fascinating."

CHUCK ADAMS
"Takes a good man, yea . . ." (see Singer)

JEFF ALPERIN
"You might as well fall flat on your face as lean over too far backwards."

JAMES ANDERSON
"It is wiser for the lame not to break his crutches upon the head of his enemy."

SHARON ANSLEY
"A true friend is one who, when you've made a fool of yourself, doesn't feel you've done a permanent job."

GEORGE BAIRD
"A hen is only an egg's way of making another egg."

SARAH BARBEE
"Some people think that it's holding on that makes one strong; sometimes it's letting go."

JULIE BARRY
"Don't be sad 'cause your sun is down; You can rise above it. Don't be sad 'cause you're on your own;
You have to learn to love it."

"Your deal."

JIM BENTLEY

"Sometimes I can laugh and cry,
And I can't remember why.
But I still love those good times gone by."

BRUCE BERGGREN

"Character is what we are in the dark, And when it is dark enough
you can see the stars."

EDIE BIRD

"The love of God in its essence is really the illumination of the heart by joy, because of its nearness to the Beloved."

HEATHER BIRT

"God is love."

BRET BLOCK

"Happiness is being yourself, not what someone else wants you to be."

VANCE BOHACHEK

"It takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow."

CLARENCE BOLTON

"We are in the world like men playing at tables: the chance is not in our power, but to play it is; and when it is fallen, we must manage it as we can."

BILLY BORDERS

"There is no thread in life so narrow as that which separates those who win from those who lose."

CARY BOWEN

"I can stand the rain just as long as the sun is gonna shine tomorrow."

CHRIS BRADLEY

"Lonely ... still ... deathly cold: 25 minutes 'till morning ... A light! A star! A new form of consciousness Thanks to the acid test of time."

KAREN BRADLEY

"Maybe I touch you? They joy it would give me would give life to my soul once again, for I live for that moment when we might be together."

ROBERT BROWNE

"In this wide world that reaches the sky I've found a future for me. Just standing there on a high mountainside I'm ruler of all I can see; And just like an eagle I'm free."

BOBIN BRYANT
"The hardest thing in the world is to be yourself."

SOPHIE BUNCE
"All are but parts of one stupendous whole, Whose nature is, and God
the soul."

SUSAN CALK
"Dreaming as the summer die: Ever drifting down the stream Linger in the golden gleam — Life, what is but a dream?"

SCOTT CAMPBELL
"Give me the Campell life!"

RICH CASCIO
"The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well; and doing well whatever you do, without the thought of fame."

CLARK CLOYD
"In the midst of winter, I finally found that there was in me an invincible summer."

GARRY DAUGHERTY
"We are not ourselves when nature, being oppressed, commands the mind to suffer with the body."

JENNIE DAVIS
"Inseparable"

MARK DICKIE

"It has helped millions of people to a broader understanding of themselves. It is for precisely this reason that governments all over the world ..." (see Freeman)

BOOLIE DIMON

"So it's just another show
You leave them laughing when you go,
But if you care don't let them know
Don't give yourself away."

LULU DOBBS

"We have two ends with a common link,
With one we sit with one we think.
If ever in doubt which one to use,
Heads you win; tails you lose."

SARAH DOMINGOS

"Follow not the crowd, for it leads to ruin."

LAURA DORNBUSH

"Hoping Reaching Discovering,
This is life."

LEN DUBOSE

"And how we loved, 'til the years
were days
How we laughed all our tears away
And now the time begins to fade
Friends, am I coming home again."

MAC DURRETT

"One can acquire everything in solitude — except character."

PEARSON EASTHAM

"Just yesterday morning, they let me know you were gone"

JANICE EDWARDS

"So don't ask where I'm going
But listen when I'm done
Faraway you'll hear me
Singing softly through the night."

MARIE ELLIS

"The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make his face to shine
upon you,
And be gracious unto you;
The Lord lift his countenance upon
you,
And give you peace."

SANDY FARMER

"What's life to those who wonder
why,
Who perch stools and sadly sigh."

CHERYL FLORENCE

"There might be another way, but the only one I follow is yours."

JOE FREEMAN

as dangerous. How can they control their people if the people see through the hypocrisy and self-serving purposes of their leaders' actions?" What is it!

ADELE FRENCH

"Life is always shallow
When you fail to see,
That living for yourself
Will never make you free."

SIDNEY GALLOWAY

"Being happy in life is being successful."

ELIZABETH GARGES

"Come up and visit me 'cause I'm never coming down."

Gwen Cleghorn, Adviser

JAMES GAUNTLETT

"Oh Boy!

When you're dead you don't take nothing with you but your soul;
Think!

JASON GOLD

"The Western world is heir to two compelling and sometimes conflicting ideas: The uniqueness of each man, and the common humanity of all men."

SUSAN GOLD

"I believe in the sun . . . even when it rains."

JERE GOLDSMITH

"Always listen to experts. They'll tell you what can't be done, and why.
Then do it."

LYDIA GREEN

"Hope is the thing with feathers —
That perches in the soul —"

ELLEN GRIDER

"I have tried to be honest with you, although I suppose you would really have been more interested in my not being honest. Some of these things happened, and some were dreams. They are all true as I understand truth. They are all real as I understand reality."

BOB GUSTAFSON

"I will continue trying ... it has paid off this far."

TODD HAACK

"If you don't love someone, then nothing else makes any sense at all."

ROSA HAGAN

"There is nothing love cannot face;
there is no limit to its faith, its hope,
and its endurance."

NANCY HANGER

"Love Him in the morning when you see the sun a risin', Love Him in the evening' cause He took you through the day.
And in the in-between times when you feel the pressure comin'
Remember that He loves you and
He promises to stay."

CRAIG HARLEY

"And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him."

HAVALYN HARTRAMPE

"His love hits you
Like an emotional bombshell
Tears —
Not of anger, despair or sadness
But tears of joy
And a peace that only
He can bring.
He gives new insights
And outlooks
On life
And living."

WILLIAM HERLONG

"I did not wish to live what was not life, living is so dear; nor did I wish to practice resignation, unless it was quite necessary. I wanted to live deep and suck out all the marrow of life,
..."

BOB HIGGINS

"For those who have come from the beginning, the end is yet to be seen."

ARNETTA HILL

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change.
The courage to change the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference."

DENISE HILL

"If you must slander, don't say it, but write it in the sand by the water's edge."

LESLIE HILL

"You cannot love, without the taste of pain.

You cannot smile, without the knowledge sadness brings.

You cannot kiss, without an inward look.

You cannot give, unless the heart endures the strain.

Happy be the wounded heart with loving left to do."

JOJO HOWELL

"I never let schooling interfere with my education."

MERITT HUBER

"I have found that material wealth does not make the man, it is how he takes his life and shapes it into the best form he can."

SARAH HUIE

"I must be swift in reaching out,
To those whose hearts are yearning;

Oh, swift indeed to love them much,
Before the long road's turning."

EDWARD HUNTER

"And there's nothing like a walk on down by
the bayou,
To leave the world behind."

CLINT HUTCHISON

"The man who says what he thinks is finished and the man who thinks what he says is an idiot."

MATT HUTCHISON

"Look'em in tuh I! It maikes 'em nervous!"

JIMBO IZLAR

"Adieu!"

KELLIE JACOBS

"When you were a tadpole and I was a fish,
In the Paleozoic Age,
And side by side on the ebbing tide,
We sprawled through the ooze and
stume,
Or scittered with many a caudal flip
Through the depths of the Cambrian ten —
My heart was rife with the joy of life,
For I loved you even then."

KEVIN JACQUES

"Don't know where we're going,
Don't know where we've been,
but I know that where we was,
wasn't it."

ROBIN JAQUITH

"There are friends who pretend to be friends,
But there is a friend who sticks
closer than a brother."

JOIA JOHNSON

"Alone I walk the ocean strand;
A pearly shell was in my hand;
I stooped and wrote upon the sand
My name — the year — the day
A wave came rolling high and fast,
And washed my lines away."

PEGGY JOHNSON

"Don't run, the time approaches,
Hotels and midnight coaches,
Be sure to hide the roaches."

CHERYL JONES

"There can be no rainbow without a cloud and a storm."

DEBBIE JONES

"KEEP SMILING"

It makes people wonder what you've been up to."

MARK JONES

"Society is a masked ball, where everyone hides his real character, and reveals it by hiding."

BOB KILLORIN

"But seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

SCOTTY LACEFIELD

"True Friendship is when two people can sit in silence comfortably."

CHRIS LAIRD

"A time it was and what a time it was
it was
A time of innocence
A time of confidences
Long ago it must be
I have a photograph
preserve your memories
They're all that's left you!"

CHRIS LECRAW

"There is nothing like wallowing in Southernism for a few days to restore one's faith in humanity and one's grasp on reality."

JULIAN LECRAW

"Woman was created from the rib of man. She was made from his side to be equal to him: from under his arm to be protected by him: from near his heart to be loved by him."

MEGAN LEIB

"It doesn't matter how it ends. The only thing to remember is the hearts and the souls you touch, and the moments you share together along the way."

LORA LERMAN

"To know is nothing at all; to imagine is everything."

DODIE LESESNE

"I just want to celebrate another day of livin'."

Clint Hutchison, Secretary-Treasurer; Stand-in for Vice-President Jeff Singer; Paul Sites, President.

ANNE LESTER

"The shadow of mountains will cover the plains,
But the shadows roll back and the sun shines again.
All that we could be we're too blind
to see;
Open your eyes and set yourself
free."

LAUREN LEVIN

"There you go man,
Keep as cool as you can,
Face piles of trials with smiles.
It riles them to believe you perceive the webs they weave and keep on thinking free.
Keep on, Little Lady, Keep on."

DOUG LEVITON

"Nothing in progression can rest on its original plan. We may as well think of rocking a grown man in the cradle of an infant."

JIM LEVY

"And NOW FOR SOMETHING COMPLETELY DIFFERENT."

DANA LEWIS

"Love reflects Love."

BOO LINCOLN

"All the times
that I've cried
Keeping All the things
I knew inside it's hard, but it's harder to ignore it. If they were right
I'd agree but it's them they Know not me now there're a way,
And I know that I have to go away, I know I have to go."

KEITH LINDSAY

"... If all men count with you, but none to much:
If you can fill the unforgiving
minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance rung.
Yours is the Earth and everything
that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a man, my son!"

PAT LLOYD

"Your Love is my comfort, which gives me HOPE.
You are my strength and song.
And I remember Your name, in the night,
when I Pray."

D.T. Lauderdale, Adviser

WES LYLE

"If you can't beat'em
Join'em; . . . But first Give it a damn good try."

JIM LYNN

"Too low they build who build beneath the stars."

BOB McCAMY

"But my dreams, they aren't as empty as my conscience seems to be."

MARK McCLELLAN

ELIZA MCGREGOR
 "I will wait,
 Even if it takes forever
 I will wait;
 Even if it takes a life time
 Some how I feel inside
 You never ever left my side;
 Make it like it was before,
 even if it takes a life time."

ANSLEY McKENZIE

"All of the beautiful sentiments in the world are worth less than one lovely action."

PAUL MALASPINA

"Oh the weather is against me and the wind blows hard
And the rain she's a-turin' into hail,
I still might strike it lucky on a highway goin' west
Though I'm travelin' on a path beaten trail.
So it's fare thee well ... "

SUSAN MANNING

"All the times I've cried,
Keeping all the things I knew inside.

It's hard, but it's harder to ignore it,
But it's them they know not me,
Now there's a way, and I know, that I have to go away. I know,
I have to go."

NICK MANOS

"Lead Me Lord
Lead Me In Thy Righteousness
Make Thy Way Plain Before My Face."

KATHERINE MANSFIELD

"If you love tall pines that touch the beginnings of the sky or watching the sunset with a friend if you have ever walked without a destination or laughed with a reason, it is likely you have discovered the joys of life."

KATIE MARTINSON

"And this must be the world which was meant,
Where ever gliding clouds of winter's tears
Cry multicolored drops of Imagination."

MARK MILLKEY

"I remember days that felt like it was raining daisies."

CELESTE MOON

"Well I've been afraid of changing cause I've built my life around you. But time makes you bolder, even children get older, and I'm getting older too."

SUKEY MOORE

"Everything that lives, lives not alone, nor for itself."

GLEN NADEL

"Wisdom is knowing when you can't be wise."

STATON OLIVER

"May all my enemies go to hell, Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel."

RICHARD PARKER

"For the past is past and will never return, the future we know not, and only the present can be called our own."

JAY PARTEN

"For God, Jeff Davis, and Robert E. Lee: The Southern Gentleman never dies. He just lives on by his strength of will like an old rooster too tough to kill."

CAROLYN PATTERSON

"Friendships are the fruits gathered from trees planted in the rich soil of love, and nurtured with tender cure and understanding . . . with this care they yield a harvest richer than all the wealth of Croesus, and blessed is he who possessed them."

CHI CHI PAYNE

"Lady, when you lose your power to laugh, you lose your power to think straight."

MARIAN PAYSON

"When we open our hearts to Him
He has abundant love to give
It is in His love that we are made free:
Free to care; free to love; free to live."

ELLAINE PECK

"Love when you can
Cry when you have to . . .
Be who you must
That's part of the plan
Await your arrival
With simple survival
Someday we'll all understand . . ."

CRAIG PENDERGRAST

"I'm going to sit under a shade tree
On a riverbank, where it's cool,
Then I'll close my eyes and dream
And let the cork bob away my blues."

TRINA POUND

"May you always have the freedom to be yourself."

DIANA PRETZ

"You never really leave
Someone you love
Part of them you take
with you . . .
Leaving a part of you
behind."

MARTIN PUTNEY

"Did you think I meant country matters?"

SISSY RAMSEY

"The grand essentials in this life are something to do, something to love, something to hope for."

JOHN RANKIN

"Tis' a fair thought . . ." (see Putney)

SCOTT REES

"The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher."

CAROL REEVES

"And each day I learn just a little bit more."

ALLYSON REID

"For long you'll live and high you'll fly, Smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry."

BILL REID

"Nothing can bring you peace but yourself."

DEBI RINGHAVER

"And here is a sunrise to set on your sill the ghosts of the dawn moving near they pass through your sorrow and leave you quite still Sitting among souvenirs."

FORREST ROBINSON

"If you've got the time ..."

JOHN ROGERS

"rocks,
stones,
leaves,
grass!"

MARY CARROLL ROWAN

"I have sedulously endeavored not to laugh at human actions, not to lament them, not to detest them, but to understand them. Maybe that is why I am so confused."

DONATA RUSSELL

"If you accept the fragrance of a rose, you must accept the thorns it bears."

LISA SATTERTHWAITE

"Have you ever stood at the ocean
With the white foam at your feet,
Felt the endless thundering motion?
Then I say you've seen Jesus my Lord."

STEPHANIE SCHLANT

"Tears are Salt of the Earth."

MIKE SCOTT

"My new found freedom only came just now and I'm experimenting with it still."

FRANK SHACKELFORD
pressure.

ANN SHEAFFER

"And it's whispered that soon if we all call the tune then the piper will lead us to reason. And a new day will dawn for those who stand long and the forest will echo with laughter."

TOM SHELTON

"C'mon! It's lovely up here!"

BETH SHORTRIDGE

"I'd try to say something here, but my mouth's only big enough for one foot."

JAMIE SHUFORD

"Did she put his Knowledge with his power before the indifferent beak could let her drop."

ANNE SIMMS

"I will praise Jesus Christ to my last breath for He is the source of all my joy and salvation."

FRAMPTON SIMONS

"I am willing to taste any drink once."

GRIFF SIMS

"God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and Wisdom to know the difference."

JEFF SINGER

"(see Adams) ... TO KNOW A GOOD WOMAN."

PAUL SITES

"All I need is the sea and the sky to know right where I stand."

ANNE SMITH

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

CHIP SMITH

"Oh what a tangle web we weave,
When first we practice to deceive!"

SCOTT SMOOT

"Never mind a small disaster.
Who's the stronger, who's the faster?
Let the pupil show the master
NEXT!"

JOHN SMULIAN

"Life, happy or unhappy, successful or unsuccessful, is extraordinary interesting."

PEGGY SOMMERVILLE

"Life can only be understood
backwards;
But it can only be lived forwards."

CAROL SPALDING

"Love is a rose and you better not pick it,
it only grows when it's on the vine.
Hand full of thorns and you've missed it,
Lose your love when you say the word mine."

DANA SPEARS

"We can do anything for one day, So, just for today, let us be unafraid of life, unafraid of death which is in the shadow of life; unafraid to be happy;
to enjoy the beautiful; to believe the best."

MISSY SPRADLEY

"There are two ways of spreading
light,
To be the candle,
or the mirror that reflects it."

SAMUEL SROCHI

"Keep dreaming because reality is a doo-doo."

STACY STUBBS

"Life can be so meaningful
When you finally see
That only in His love
Will you really be free."

LOWE STUCKEY

"Wooden ships on the water very
free,
Easy, you know that's the way it's supposed to be.
People on the shoreline let us be.
We are free and easy ..."

RUSSELL STURM

"Caught between the longing for love
And the struggle for the legal tender:

Do those terrified vague fingers push

The feathered glory from her loosening thighs?

Do you take the paradise
And put up a parking lot?
Oh, for the one Ring to bring them
all

And in the darkness bind them

DOUG TAYLOR

"He saw that the water continually flowed and flowed
And yet it was always there; it was always the same
And yet every moment it was new."

TOM TAYLOR

"The person who laughs last usually doesn't get the joke."

CAROL TEPLIS

"... And here is a sunrise
To set on your sill
The ghosts of the dawn moving near.
They pass through your sorrow
And leave you quite still Sitting among souvenirs."

TOMMY THATCHER

"... to the man who wears the star

TESS THOMPSON

"Art is a lie that enables us to realize the truth."

RICHARD TIFT

"So, by the aid of worthless fools
The man who knows to use his tools

MIKE TIPPETT

"And in between what might have
been,
And what has come to pass;
A misbegotten guess, alas;
And bits of broken glass."

DEBBIE TORRAS

"Don't walk in front of me — I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me — I may not lead.
Walk beside me and just be my friend."

TOMMY TRACY

"Keep in touch with Mama Kin Tell her where you've gone and
been
Living out your fantasy
Sleepin' late and smokin' tea."

CARY TREGELLAS

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

BESTY TUCK

"I heard upon his dry dung heap
That Man cry out, who cannot sleep;
'If God is God, He is not good;
If God is good, He is not God.
Take the even, take the odd
I would not sleep here if I could Except for the little green leaves in the wood
And the wind on the water.'"

BETH TUTTLE

"What does it mean — 'tame'?"
"It is an act too often neglected," said the Fox. "It means to establish ties."
"'To establish ties'?"
"Just that," said the Fox. "To me
you are still nothing.
But if you tame me, then we shall need each other.
To me, you will be unique in all the world. To you,
I shall be unique in all the world
..."

ELIZABETH UPSHAW

"Let us endeavor so to live that when we come to die even the undertaker will be sorry."

GLENN WARREN

"Why should I play the Roman fool and die on my own sword? ... Lay on"

DAVID WEISSMANN

"I'm fixing a hole where the rain gets in
And stops my mind from wandering
Where it will go ...
I'm painting my room in the colorful way
And when my mind is wandering
There I will go."

SCOTT WENNERHOLM

"I'd rather look around me — compose a better song 'cos that's the honest measure of my worth. And as for Him, I do believe He's not the king you have to wind up on Sundays."

ALAN WHITE

"The successful fail time and time again. The foolish fail only once."

PETER WHITE

"... Mann Kann ja im Herzen
Stets lachen und scherzen
Und denker dabei
Die Gedarker sind frei!"

PHIL WHITE

"It is not what he has — which directly expresses the worth of a man, but what he is."

BILLY WHITESIDES

"Spend all you have for loveliness,
Buy it and never count the cost;
For one white singing hour of peace
Count many year of strife well lost,
And for a breath of ecstasy
Give all you have been, or could be."

GAIL WILCOX

"May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the hollow of His hand."

BOB WILLIAMS

"The bear went over the mountain."

FREDDY WILLIAMS

"'Tis a gift to be simple;
'Tis a gift to be free."

SUSIE WILLIAMS

"The heart has its reasons, which reason does not know."

HAYES WILSON

"Let's get acquainted with Life; taste, feel, see, hear, and smell all Life has to give."

MELINDA WILSON

"When time ran out on me, I fell in love with eternity and we lost no more time."

BLANTON WINSHIP

"Help them see the light."

WENDI WOOD

"Not everyone repeats gossip. Some improve it."

CINDY WOODWARD

"The best rose bush after all, is not that which has the fewest thorns, but that which bears the finest roses."

CHUCK YOUNG

"Play it again, Sam."

LIZ YOUNG

Do you ever get the feeling
That the story's too damn real and in the Present tense or that everybody's on the stage and it seems like you're the only person sitting in the audience?

MARK YOUNG

"but the road goes on forever . . ."
